

BRIEFLETS.

—Slim show for shows.
—How are you October?
—Miss Russell has gone to Chicago to get new goods.
—Young Men's Christian Association meeting to-night.
—The funeral of Miss Maggie O'Connor was held this morning from St. Patrick's church.
—The boys better get on their good behavior. It is said that typhoid fever is having a run at the Waukesha school.
—As announced some time ago in the Gazette, the annual inspection of Janesville militiamen is to be on the 15th of this month.
—Baumgarten's father, and his mother's two sisters visited to-day, it being the first visit he has received from his relatives since the murder.
—A team on Main street yesterday afternoon started out to make a runaway item, but one of the horses slipped and fell down spoiling all the promised sensation.
—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hennings desire to thank their friends for the kindness shown them and theirs during the sickness and death of Mrs. Hennings's sister, Miss Maggie O'Connor.
—Everybody who has a box at the post-office, is sure to get four letters a year anyway. Just now the Postmaster is keeping his promise good by putting one into each box, written under his direction. He expects an answer from each, and prefers cash down.

—The sharp, quick shrieks of three or four locomotive whistles, last night, at about ten o'clock, caused quite a stir among the fire lads, who imagined their services were being called for at the depot, but the whistles were sounded for a belated conductor; only this, and nothing more.
—The surviving relatives of the late Deacon M. L. Burdick desire to express through the Gazette their earnest thanks to the many kindly acts and sympathetic words, received by them during their affliction, and which served so greatly to lighten the burden of sorrow which has fallen upon them.
—Considerable talk was made on the streets to-day by the report of a fatal row last night at Harvard among some of the laborers employed on the construction train, of Frank Osgood of this city. The row resulted in the killing of one man and severe, if not fatal, injuries to others. The full particulars are given in our telegraphic columns.

—A stranger in the city was eyed very suspiciously yesterday afternoon, and was put in the embarrassing condition of being suspected of trying to "show the queer," because he had a counterfeit silver dollar, and was trying to find the man who gave it to him in change. After entering several stores with it, he finally struck his man, and got good money for it.
—The old house on Main street just south of the park, which has served as a landmark for many years, is being completely remodelled and repaired and made ready for occupancy. Its appearance is so changed as to render it hardly recognizable. Col. Warren occupied that house fully thirty years ago, and since then it has had different tenants. It now belongs to the Culver estate.

—Some who visit the cemetery are so thoughtless as to let their dogs accompany them. In spite of the rule forbidding dogs to enter the grounds. Often times great injury is done by these selfsame dogs. They destroy bonquets and flowers placed, there, tip over vases, sometimes scratch holes, and can in a few hours do more damage than days of work can replace. Visitors should bear this in mind. Those in charge of the cemetery keep as sharp a look-out as possible, but in spite of this the rule is sometimes broken.

PERSONAL.

—Tom S. Nolan has been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of this State.
—Will Webster, of Ripon, arrived in the city yesterday, to look after some personal matters here of special interest and importance to him.
—Miss Myra Bliss, who has been quite sick at her Sisters in Reedburg, was able to return home with her father Saturday. The many warm friends which Miss Bliss possesses in the city will be glad to know of her improved condition thus far.
—Harry Merrill, son of Hon. H. Merrill, of this city, has been honored of late by being promoted from Sergeant to Captain of Company B, at the Military Academy at Fairbault, Minn., which he has been attending for some time. The honor is well conferred.
—The sad news reached this city yesterday afternoon that the aged mother of Peter Myers had died at her home near Lyons, Ohio. She was deemed dangerously sick some weeks ago, and Mr. Myers hastened to her bedside, but as she improved in health, he returned home again, and now comes the news that all is over.

OPENING THE CAMPAIGN.

Governor Smith and Hon. T. M. Nichol to speak in Janesville October 10.
Arrangements have been perfected for a grand Republican rally on the evening of the 10th of October, at Lippin's music hall. Governor Smith and Hon. Thomas M. Nichol have promised to be here and address the people. This announcement of itself will be sufficient to cause the hall to be crowded with those eager to hear these speakers on the live issues of the day, and no one interested in clearly understanding the political situation can afford to miss this chance of hearing men in every way qualified to speak, and willing to give their honest convictions. Let the turn-out be a rousing one.

LUNA DELEGATES.

The caucus at Luna was held yesterday at resulted in the choice of the following delegates for the Assembly Convention, N. M. G. Mason, J. B. Lewis, Andrew Dixon, DICKERSON'S CASE.

The Supreme Court Decides not to Grant Any Further Stay.

Yesterday a motion was made in the Supreme Court of the State, by A. Hyatt Smith, attorney for Dickerson, to have a further stay of proceedings. The Court refused to grant any further stay, so that Dickerson is liable to be taken from here to Waupun at any time which the authorities here may deem best. This does not of course interfere with the appeal to the Supreme Court, but while this appeal is pending, Dickerson can be kept at Waupun instead of here. The Court also urged the Attorney General to push the Mack case to a hearing as early a date as possible, as it has been hanging fire for about nine months. Her Attorneys here claim that they are ready to argue the matter at any time and that the delay is caused by the State. It now looks as though both her case and that of Dickerson's would soon come to a final decision.

HOW NEWS TRAVELS.

News doesn't improve in accuracy any by travel as will be seen by the following item concerning the late murder in this county. It is clipped from the Gazette of Worcester, Mass.

A five year old son of Alexander White at Porter Rock, Arkansas, was hung by a firm hand named Barrington yesterday. He then cut the boy's head nearly off, disembowelled him and fled.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 80 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m. to-day at 72 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 70 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 86 degrees above.

The mean temperature for the month of September was a fraction over 60 degrees. The indications to-day are, for the upper lake region, clear or partly cloudy weather, variable winds, mostly from south to west, stationary or lower temperature and barometer.

AN INCENDIARY FIRE.

Another attempt at incendiarism has come to light. Between one and two o'clock Monday morning "Mike" the caller at the Round house discovered a blaze lighting up under one of Mrs. Olive Doty's houses near by. He hurried to put out the flames, and found that some one had saturated some rags and cloths with kerosene oil and had lighted them. It seems strange that Mrs. Doty's houses should thus be fated, as the fire which consumed one of her houses there a few months ago, was thought to be the work of an incendiary. It would be a blessing if the fire-dienst could be brought to justice.

A LIVELY SURPRISE.

We had a surprise played on us the other day. While standing in front of John Griffiths' hardware store, opposite the postoffice, admiring the showy front, and the taste in displaying goods, we were asked by the genial proprietor of that establishment to take a look through the stock. We did so thinking it would be about ten minutes' work. Instead of that it was a regular journey. Up and down stairs, down stairs and up—four floors packed, jammed full of shelf goods, cutlery, stoves, tinware, farming implements, iron, wagon wood stock,—in fact we can't begin to tell the things we saw, and the distance travelled. Besides the building proper there are store houses for other goods, and by the time we had got through looking, the ten minutes had sped into an hour, and we had only glanced at the stock then. Stoves, stoves, till you could not rest. The tin shop was on the full jump, and was kept noisy. Everything was lively, and indicated prosperity. The stock of iron and wagon makers' supplies is a marvel of itself, for it embraces everything necessary to make any and every sort of a vehicle complete, from a farm wagon to the best buggy on wheels. The stock is arranged in such complete order that there can be no confusion of mixing, and though there's plenty doing, everything is done decently and in order. Griffiths has built up a wonderfully prosperous establishment during the past fifteen years, its growth being steady and sure, and showing a striking example of what hard, honest work will do. It is as complete and convenient a store as can be found in this part of the country, and is arranged with an eye to business. The next time we try to look through that stock we'll take some holiday, when there's time to spare for there's too much to see in a hurried hour of a busy day. One can find everything there that falls in that line, and it isn't old rubbish either, but new and saleable. He sells too fast to carry over many goods.

William Jones Nominated for Superintendent of Schools on the Twenty-First Ballot.

MILTON JUNCTION.

—Mr. A. O. Allen has retired from the drug business in this village and removed his drug stock to home in Milton. We understand he proposes going west.

—Button Bros. went to Chicago last week to attend the Exposition but took advantage of the occasion to lay in a large stock of goods while there. Squire Thorpe went down the same time.

—Mr. Sheffield Maxon is visiting at Dr. Cookley's this week.

—Mrs. Thero and Mrs. Wood spent a portion of last week at Fort Atkinson where they formerly resided.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Carr started on Wednesday last for Omaha, in company with Mr. Henry Fowler Esq., of Chicago. Object—a pleasure trip and to see the country.

—Duck shooting is again indulged in to some extent by lovers of the sport, at Lake Koshkonong.

—Not promising to be outdone in caring for the comfort of passengers, Landlord Stetson has put up a new top on his passenger wagon which he runs between his hotel and the Monroe trains, at Milton, so that passengers to and from the hotel will ride in stylish and comfortable turnouts.

—Mr. Pratt and wife, returned on Monday from Omaha, where they had been attending meetings.

—All the streets on Monday night for Mankato, Minnesota, in answer to a telegram announcing the sickness of her brother at that place.

—Mr. Wm. Paul, Jr., returned from Minnesota last week where he has spent the summer.

—The big lawsuit last week between John Fritz, of Jefferson county, and Constance Mills of this place, growing out of the alleged taking of the plaintiff's property, to satisfy a debt of the plaintiff's father came off before Justice Thorpe, on Tuesday last before jury trial, Lawyer Weymouth, of Jefferson, appearing for the plaintiff, and Brunt, of Fort Atkinson, for the defendant. The case resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff with nominal damages.

—Mr. Robert Brown, of Ulica, was in town on Friday last posting bills for his big farm and stock sale on the 15th of October.

—Young Baumgarten, the murderer of little Sandy White, was in the employ of Mr. Nathaniel Rose, near Grass Lake, during seven months of last year, and was consequently quite well known to many in this vicinity as a rather dull, stolid, unoffensive German. None dreamed that he possessed the elements of the sickening crime just perpetrated.

—Miss Maggie Owen, of Randolph, Wis., is in town visiting her sister Mrs. George Button.

—The Spanish tobacco crop has been nearly as sold in these parts at prices ranging from 10 to 12 cents per pound. This is considered a fair price.

—Captain Fish, of Racine, an ex-captain in the 13th Wisconsin Regiment, and now one of the leading lawyers in Wisconsin, was in town for a few hours on Thursday last.

—The Junction mill will probably be running again in good shape on Thursday or Friday of this week.

—The caucus to elect delegates to the Superintendent and Assembly District Conventions on Thursday last was the largest caucus ever held in Milton. Morgan's hall was none too large for the accommodation of the 230 voters present besides an unusual number of visitors. The caucus was quiet and orderly notwithstanding the deep and almost excited interest that pervaded the entire mass. In addition to the usual amount of sectional strife, there was the clear cut rivalry of two opposing candidates for the support of each of the two delegations to be elected to wit, Mr. E. Goodrich and W. W. Clark, of Milton, for the Assembly and Prof. I. C. Curtis, of Clinton, for the Superintendent. The organization was effected with Dr. O. Allen as chairman and F. C. Butten as secretary. The several ballots taken resulted in the election of four delegates in the interest of Prof. Curtis to the Superintendent Convention, William McKean, H. R. Hinkley, Dr. O. Allen, George Butts, and five delegates to wit, Mr. S. C. Carr, H. W. Maxon, P. Marquet, Jas. Pierce, and C. H. Hunt to represent the interests of Mr. E. Goodrich in the Assembly District Convention. The highest vote was on chairman of Assembly delegation P. M. Green receiving 97; S. C. Carr, 129. The highest on Superintendent delegates was George Dennett, 81; Dr. O. Allen, 136. Majorities ranging from 30 to 50. The ground has been closely canvassed by the opposing candidates.

CITY NOTICES.

As caloric, electricity, and phosphorus are induced and supplied by Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, it only requires the administration of this successful invention to fortify the feeble, give sprightliness and motion to the torpid, and bring about a condition which not only secures tenaciousness of life but makes life really enjoyable.

RICH SPECULATIONS.

A brakeman on a Western railroad placed $50 in a combination, which turned a profit of 3 1/2 per cent, equal to $387.50 per hundred shares, netting a profit of $193.75, in addition to the $50 invested. A conductor made $1,176.24 in two combinations. The superintendent of an Eastern railway made $19,210.13 in three combinations. Others have also made large profits. This system of stock speculation consolidates the interests of thousands into one whole, dividing the profits pro rata every thirty days. The combinations handled with the best skill and experience, attain great success in the stock market. From $25 to $10,000 can thus be invested with vast advantage.
